

Laying the Foundation for Complete Streets

West Palm Beach City Hall Flagler Gallery, West Palm Beach

December 8, 2015

Ryan Snyder and Tom Errico

8:30 Registration

9:00 Welcome and introductions

- Local host and welcome speaker

9:15 Introduction to Complete Streets

- Complete Streets: what it is, what is not
- Benefits of a Complete Streets approach
- Design flexibility and application
- Exercise: How would Complete Streets benefit your community?

10:15 Break

10:30 Complete Streets performance measures

- Setting Complete Streets goals
- What is currently measured? What should be measured?
- Exercise: What performance measures are important to you?

10:45 Creating room for Complete Streets

- Allocating space within the right-of-way
- Street classification and rethinking the role of streets
- Exercise: What streets are candidates for road diets in your community? How would you reallocate the space?

11:30 Introduction to Complete Streets policy

- Policy types and successful traits
- Ten elements of an ideal Complete Streets policy

Noon Lunch

12:45 Project development process

- How decisions are made under Complete Streets

1:15 Implementation

Exercise: Steps in implementing Complete Streets in your community.

2:00 Break

2:15 Local policies and topics

- Brief overview of current policies, plans, processes and unique topics to consider in approaching Complete Streets locally

Exercise: Congress Avenue Redesign

- Apply CS principles to Congress Avenue

3:45 Discussion: Our next steps

4:30 Adjourn